HEAVY SENTENCE FOR L. AH LEONG

Had to Serve One Whole Hour for Having One Wife Too Many.

L. Ah Leong, the big Chinese merchant, was yesterday morning given the heavy sentence of one hour's imprisonment in the marshal's office, for bigamy. A $500 fine was also imposed, but as L. Ah Leong has more heads than some people have had, this will not hurt him much.

L. Ah Leong may count himself a lucky man, as within the past year or two several men convicted of the crime of bigamy have been sent to the penitentiary to serve terms of two or three years apiece.

Ah Leong entered a plea of nolo contendere; in other words, he did not contest the proceedings. In fact, he could not very well contest them as he has two wives now and at one time had three. Incidentally, he worked a very smooth trick on the federal authorities but was finally run to earth by the obstinacy of a woman, said woman being Wife No. 1.

A year or so ago the federal authorities discovered that Ah Leong had an extra wife, and they went after him.
Ah Leong promised to be good and sent the extra back to China. But instead of sending back Wife No. 2, who is young and pretty, he sent back his real wife, or Wife No. 1, who is old and not so pretty.

But that didn't suit Wife No. 1, and not long ago she came back and demanded admittance as the wife of a Chinese merchant. Immigration Inspector Brown investigated and learned that she was really Ah Leong's first and only legal wife and he had to admit her, though the Chinese merchant wasn't a bit anxious to see her.

But her arrival precipitated trouble for Ah Leong, for the federal authorities promptly tumbled to the trick the merchant had played on them, and as he was living with Wife No. 2, they pinched him on a charge of bigamy.
The sentence recorded above is the result. Ah Leong agreed to send the young and pretty wife back to China, and has done so. Also, he expects to leave in a few weeks for the land of his nativity, presumably to visit Wife No. 2, who is young and pretty.

Ah Leong has served his severe sentence and is now out of jail—or rather, out of the marshal's office. But that cost $500 fine—he had to pay it!

STATUS OF HAWAII'S BILL IN CONGRESS

It is probable that Hawaii's bill to amend the Organic Act will come up for consideration in the house next Wednesday, according to the information received yesterday by Governor Frear in a letter from Delegate Kahala.
The Delegate wrote that he expected the bill to come up either last Wednesday or Wednesday of next week. It was not considered last week, so it is expected that it will be taken up next Wednesday.

The Delegate informed the Governor that the full committee of the house had put all salaries back to the senate figures except those of the Governor, whose salary is placed at $10,000 as in the bill. The legislators are placed at $200. The committee unanimously voted against the low railroad guarantee and homestead and features of the bill and these have been eliminated.

Kahala also wrote that, as a result of the Cotton Brothers' case, an amendment has been added to allow appeals to the Supreme Court of the United States on exceptions in matters involving $5000 or more.

RUSSIAN PILIKIA DETAINS GOVERNOR

The Russian pilikia is one of several important affairs that prevented Governor Frear from leaving for Hawaii Friday evening as he had intended. The Governor and Marston Campbell are going to the Big Island for two or three weeks to look into land matters, but they will be kept here until a week from next Tuesday, largely, the Governor stated yesterday, on account of the Russian situation.

SIX SAILORS FACE CHARGES OF MUTINY

Most of the crew of the ship Babcock are under indictment for mutiny.
The five sailors being returned last week by the federal grand jury. Six of the sailors, however, were discharged because of lack of evidence. John Christensen, who is said to be the leader of the mutiny, has under two hundred dollars in money, and is being held in the other five sailors.

RUSSIANS ARREST EMIGRATION AGENTS

MINSK, Russia, March 22.—The anthracite are continuing their efforts to break up the organized system through which passport agents to America, unable to secure passports, are helped across the frontier. Four parties of emigrants were captured recently and subsequently six agents engaged in recruiting such parties were arrested.

$110.00 (First-Class) S. S. Sierra—5 1-2 Days.

The twin-screw S. S. SIERRA (Classed by Lloyds 100 A1), 10,000 tons displacement, Captain Houdlette, commander, will sail for San Francisco, April 6, and maintain a 21 day schedule on the San Francisco run. This splendid steamer has double bottoms, water-tight compartments, two sets of triple expansion engines, developing over 8,000 horsepower, and twin-screws capable of driving the vessel over 17 knots an hour. The diningroom is a splendid hall, running clear across the ship, located on the upper deck away from the kitchen.
The ventilation of the steamer is perfect, being provided with forced draft, which entirely frees it from the closeness and odors often found on ocean steamers. The Sierra is of good beam and provided with bilge keels. The steamer has been recently equipped with oil-burning apparatus and renovated throughout. A wireless outfit has also been installed. Nothing has been left undone that tends to the safety and comfort of travelers. The reduced round-
